

Photo: Danny Kidby-Hunter

2. Beenham wolves at the Wolf Conservation Trust.

3. Butlers Farm. 16th century.

1. Awberry Farm – early 18th century

8. Clay Lane is a very ancient route from the Kennet Valley marshes and arable fields to the grazing on Bucklebury Common. Look for horsetail on the banks. A plant unchanged for millions of years. It was used to polish pewter.

7. Old Copse is a Site of Special Scientific Interest and is rich in flowers and tree species

4. 350 year old oak on Path 19

5. Look for the dramatic valley head carved by water flowing out of the gravel capping on the ridge.

6. St Mary's church is the third on the site. Tower rebuilt 1794, the rest of the church 1860-71

BEENHAM PARISH COUNCIL
Further details of paths can be downloaded at beenhamonline.org.

